

MIDWEEK

“Lost and Found”

Lesson 3: Urgency

ICE BREAKER:

What is one takeaway from the first 2 sessions on prayer and awareness that stood out to you? Have you altered some things in your weekly rhythms that have strengthened your prayer and awareness for others?

QUESTION 1:

How can we begin to approach life with a sense of Kingdom urgency as John described it in this teaching?

QUESTION 2:

There are 5 fundamental truths about urgency discussed in this teaching:

1. The field is ripe for the harvest and the field is ready for sowing - “Wisdom”
2. Someone must go - Who will go? - “Courage”
3. Jesus commands us to go - “Obedience”
4. Today is the day of salvation - “Awakening”
5. Jesus’ promise - “I am coming soon” - “Endurance”

What do you see as your greatest strength out of these 5 fundamental truths on urgency? Your greatest weakness? Why?

QUESTION 3:

John used an example of a lake, as it gave an illustration on the perspective of urgency and time. What were your thoughts on this unique illustration?

QUESTION 4:

After watching the video presentation of Alpha Ministries, what did you find different about their approach in personal evangelism that is different than how you have viewed evangelism in the past?

CLOSING CHALLENGE:

Think about your “1” this week. Is this person even on your radar? What are your plans to bring prayer, awareness and urgency into your communication with your “1”?
