

“UNIQUE WEEK”

Lesson 4: At the Well – Guest Speaker Hosanna Wong

CONNECT:

Guest speaker Hosanna Wong discussed her and her brother’s passion about comic books. Would you consider yourself to be more of a Marvel Comics fan, a DC fan or neither?

CONNECT:

Who is your favorite Superhero? Who would be your favorite Villain? Why?

LEARN:

Hosanna Wong shared the story about a woman known as Mrs. Lee who took time to listen to a young man’s vacuum cleaner’s sales pitch that eventually led to her leading her father to Christ. This encounter led to her father’s pursuit of a life- long ministry of leading people to Christ. Do you know someone who reminds you of Ms. Lee? What characteristics are similar of the person you selected and Ms. Lee?

LEARN:

Have you ever believed a lie, that at some point, has kept you from doing what God has called you to do, or becoming who God has called you to be?

LEARN:

Have you ever witnessed a time when Evangelism was done wrong? What did it look like? Why do you think it left you unfulfilled?

LEARN:

Hosanna Wong shared her story of trying to lead her brother to Christ the wrong way. She mentioned poor relationship choices such as: being pushy, staying silent, or being judgmental. Have you unintentionally used any of these approaches without thinking? What was the outcome?

LEARN:

Hosanna Wong made the following statement: “Your greatest witness can be your greatest “withness.” What does this statement mean to you? How can it affect your ability reveal God’s love for the people around you?

APPLY:

Name a person in your life that you have thought would be impossible to lead to Christ. Make a plan this week based on the sermon from Hosanna Wong, to make an eternal impact on their lives.
