

“Generations”

Week 4

CONNECT:

What is a Kingdom Builder project that you would say that is near and dear to your heart? Why does this project resonate with you?

LEARN:

Pastor Trey made a statement in this week’s message that said, “Your house and His house are connected.” How does this look for your family?

LEARN:

Psalm 127:3-5 NLT — Children are a gift from the Lord; they are a reward from him. 4 Children born to a young man are like arrows in a warrior’s hands. 5 How joyful is the man whose quiver is full of them! He will not be put to shame when he confronts his accusers at the city gates.

This is a beautiful metaphor — every home becomes an archery range, every family a quiver. Now the job of a parent is like that of a warrior... it sparks our imagination. In terms of archery, what would you identify as your target?

Why would you select this as your target?

When we say we must parent with the end in mind, what does that mean for you?

LEARN:

There were 3 terms used for the types of parenting styles we may find ourselves using: Over-Parenting, Under-Parenting, and Inner-Parenting. Discuss each style of parenting styles. Which one do you see as most common?

Which style do you see as the healthiest style? What are the challenges facing this style of parenting?

CLOSING CHALLENGE:

At the close of the message, where did you find yourself drawn to in terms of intentional arrows for your family?

Take time this week to identify specific areas that you can fight for the partnership between your family and your church family.
