

FOLEY SUNDAY 11AM - Words In Due Season

Emma

I don't know her but I know she means business. You are very intentional. When you walked in—how do you two know each other? Okay. This fellow was like behind me and she was like—like that, and I thought “Oh God am in trouble like what did I do?” And he just snapped around and came over. And in that moment, #1, Emma means it, don't mess with Emma, she means business, but you're intentional and that's good. You have a leadership call on your life and the Lord says it's very important what you put your hand to because you carry influence and people are going to follow you. So if you're going, you know the wrong direction, you're going to have a crowd just going right behind you. But if you're going in the direction that the Lord is leading you, you're going to have a crowd right behind you. So be mindful of —you haven't done anything wrong. This is the Lord speaking, pulling that leadership out of you and telling you “what in this confidence.” He's put it in there. That doesn't mean you know everything. Now you might feel like it, cause I do too. But we don't. We don't. We just don't. And that's okay. But just surrender that leadership to the Lord and just be about it. Be about it, Amen?

Choice

Nobody ever tells the sound man what he's doing well. I'm here to tell you, bro, your craft is amazing. Thank you for doing what you've done to get where you are. And again, nobody ever thanks the sound man when the sound's right and I'm sure there are people right now going “It's too loud!” or “It's not loud enough!” like that's us church, that's what we do. So thank you for what you're doing, Choice. I really, really appreciate it. And you already know this, but I just want to affirm you. I want to give honor where honor's due. You remove distraction and when we move distraction from a worship set, it gives the believer the opportunity to get in the presence of God faster, cleaner, quicker. And when they get in the presence of God. That's where we get healed, it's where we get saved. It's where miracles happen. So Choice, thank you. Thank you from the Church of Jesus Christ. And thank you from the Kingdom. Continue to grow. Please, please, please continue to grow and teach us to do the same. Amen? God bless you.

Brittany

Brittany, I just felt like you have the ability to just organize things. You are—you can figure things out. You're very intelligent. And I feel like sometimes you might doubt yourself or people don't see that you and the Lord is saying He sees that, He delights in that, He wired you that way. You have a lot to offer. So when the enemy is whispering lies to you, you tell him to hush. He's a liar. When he's talking, he's lying, right? We're not agreeing with that. You are intelligent. You are beautiful. You are called by God. And what you have, we need. You receive it? Amen.

Janet

When the Lord pointed you out, what I heard was fresh wind, fresh fire. Fresh wind, fresh fire in your life. You are a worshiper. Man, I see you in the deep, intimate place with God. And I see you asking questions with courage that no one else is willing to ask. And I just want to thank you for praying those prayers and saying the things that you've said, the people that you've prayed for, the tears that have hit your floor, man. And now I feel like the Lord is saying—cause everything I just said is past tense. I feel like the Lord is saying, you're coming into a season of fresh wind, fresh fire. Your journey is nowhere close to over. You're not coming into—you know, you're not docking the boat, you're continuing on this journey with the Lord. And it's—I feel like this last season is going to be the most fruitful season you've ever seen. Fruit's just going to fall off the tree left and right. They're going to be things that happen that you forgot you prayed about and the Father is going to come to you and say, “No, I remembered that prayer and that happened.” So, thank you. Thank you. God bless you.

Angela

Angela, I feel like you've been in a season of having to make decisions about relationships and putting up boundaries, maybe breaking off some things, and then also putting boundaries where maybe it hasn't been super healthy. And that's not easy. But you're doing it. And the Lord wants you to know, He's so pleased that you're doing it. You're also an intercessor by nature. I mean, you will storm the gates of heaven for anyone and you do anybody that the Lord puts on your heart. You're just willing to go before the Father and the Lord hears your prayers. He's answering your prayers, even if it doesn't look like it's all panning out. God is working on your behalf, in your own life and in the life of others because of what you're sowing into the Kingdom and because He loves you. Amen.

Winston

So you're entering a season of favor. I don't know if you're in business. I don't know what you do, but I saw you walking through the door of a boardroom, sitting down at the table and a whole bunch of influential leaders listening to what you had to say and they approved whatever it was that you were presenting. And the Lord is breathing on it. So I don't know if that's what you're doing right now. I don't know if you're a CEO. Don't answer any of those questions. I don't know any of that. So the picture that He's showing me, I'm just saying you're entering a season of favor. So if you've been asking the Lord for something, if you've been, you know, wanting this, it's probably time to take a step. Because the difference between what we want and what God's doing is our faith, right? So if you take that step of faith, I feel like God's going to meet you in it. Now, do it with wise counsel. Don't just take a crazy step, but you're entering a season of favor. If you have business ideas, If you have something like that, take the step. Go for it, Winston. The wind is at your back. Go after it. Amen. God bless you, man.

Danielle

Danielle, I feel like you have been in places—I sense that it's related to work, and we only know in part. So I'm going to tell you what I hear. You've been in places where you have, even like been given a project. You poured your heart, your soul, your everything into it, and then you present it and it's amazing and then they decide to go in another direction and it is extra really frustrating. And over and over, I feel like you've had these starts and stops like that. And the temptation is to just be like, “You know what? I'm out. Y'all can't appreciate what I have or what I bring.” And it is frustrating. But the Lord is saying, “Don't bail, don't quit, stick with it.” He's doing something in you. He's working something in and through you. And you're going to step into a season where it is going to be valued. You are going to be seen, your work is going to be celebrated. But it is—and I feel like you've trudged through the hardest part of it. But the temptation is to just want to quit and not do it, just be done. But the Lord says, “Don't.” He's taking you somewhere and it's going to be good. Lay down any expectations of what it should look like, but just know—anticipate God's goodness. He's working it out for you. Amen?

Jason

So, right when you walked in, the Lord “Bam!”, just highlighted you to me. And so here's what I feel like the Lord's saying—and we prophesy in part, we know in part, so look for the gold, okay? Too many disclaimers. This is what the Lord wants to say over you. It doesn't have to look like everything else. I sense and feel that either you or people have tried to squeeze you into boxes to box you in and it doesn't have to look like everything else looks. You don't have to be like the common dissenter either, right? You don't have to be like way out here. But man, you are cut different. You are going to lead different. You're built differently. And it's okay. It's good. Okay? I set you up for that because the call on your life is huge. You have a big call on your life and you know, this, but God's elevating it. What I feel like the Lord wants to speak everyday is that you have an apostolic call. You, over your life, you are going to plant churches, you're going to launch things, you're going to do things that— So apostle just means one sent with a message. So like, you know, Paul went to all these places that were awful places. Pastor Wayne was just talking about one of them. And I don't know that He's sending you there, but it's going to flow out of you. And I see it flowing out of you. And so don't try to put it in a box and let the Lord do what he wants to do. You're not resistant. You're not rebellious at all. You want Him to do—you want God to move in your life. So open up and allow a little more faith to just pour through. I mean, this is what that looks like. You drive a truck, don't you? Yeah, that's what I thought. So you're sitting in your truck going, “God, why is it like this?” And out of just after a few seconds, the white knuckles will start to let go. “Lord, why is it like this?” And your truck's going to be a sanctuary. Let Him speak to you there. Amen? God bless you man.

Karen

Karen, I just sent such a nurturing, such a mothering, like a spiritual mothering all over you. You host the presence of the Lord so well. I saw people coming to you just battered and broken and beat down. They come in, you patch them up, you sing the Word of God over them. You ministered to their hearts. You lead them to a place of healing. And then they come out the other side and they're just ready, ready to get back in the battle. And the Lord wants you to know He appreciates the way that you love His people. And I know that you're seeking God for some things in your own life and the Lord wants you to know He's moving, He's doing it, He's doing it, He's bringing them home. He's doing it. He's healing your body. He's going to do it. God is going to have you land in pleasant places. By the time all this is said and done, you're going to land in pleasant places. You receive it. Amen. Amen.

Cheyenne

You have such a heart for the Lord. You just want to be a part of what God is doing. And I feel like you've tried to get involved in certain areas or maybe even want to work in certain areas, and it just hasn't worked out. The enemy would have you take that as rejection. The Lord wants you to know it's redirection. It is not rejection. It's redirection. There is a place that's just for you that nobody else can be in that seat and God's making a way for you. So just don't let that stuff get you off track. Just sit with the Lord and say, "Lord, would you give me the direction of where you want me to go? Where do you want me to put my hand? Where do you want me to set my feet?" And He's going to make a way for you. God sees you. You receive it? Amen.
