

MALBIS MONDAY 6:30PM - Words in Due Season

Tricia

So I've just been hearing this role over and over and over again. You have a tremendous heritage. Your spiritual heritage is amazing, and everybody in this house knows it. That's not why you're called. Your call is your call, and it's time to stop questioning. You know you're called to leadership. You know you're doing what you're supposed to be doing. You feel purpose on it. It is extremely purposeful and it's going to continue to be. And you are called. Put it to rest, all these little nippy doubts that come alongside you. You're not disqualifying yourself or anything like that. But there's this question that rolls and it's not from the Lord, so you don't have to deal with it anymore. The Lord sent a stranger from Texas to tell you you are called. Continue to do what you're doing. You're a blessed woman of God. God bless you.

Danny

Danny, when you were up speaking and praying over that couple, I heard Conference Speaker. You need to be speaking. You need to be speaking and teaching and preaching. And I don't know if you get an opportunity to do that here, but if you do, you know, continue to do it. But the Lord— your phone's going to be ringing, your email is going to be blowing up. This time the Lord is sending you, you need to speak. Conference Speaker. Amen.

Patrice

Wisdom is all over you. You have a gift of wisdom. People ask your advice all the time and you say, "Why do they ask me everything? Why do people ask me everything?" It's because you truly are wise. You don't believe that about yourself, but you are. I see people asking you and you say something like, "I really don't know." And so then they say, "okay, what would you do?" It's a gift God has given you to help instruct others, almost like a teacher. Never underestimate the input and the impact that you have on others. You do make a difference. Your wisdom is needed and valued. God bless you.

Jeremiah

Good name. Good name. I see an anointing on you to fill the holes that people without Jesus feel in their hearts. You are a pied-piper gatherer and a good news spreader. Use the things God has put in your hands: worship, music, an engaging personality and a gift of faith. Boldly serve God, but stay humble. Courageously share your faith and your story whenever you can. Heaven's resonance is in your voice and in your soul. Listen for God's voice and when you hear then just obey. Just obey. You will lead many souls to the Lord during your lifetime.

Dee

Is your grandmother still living? 88 years old, You're the answer to her prayers. Yeah. She's been praying for you before you were ever born that there would come someone out of her lineage that would carry the gospel of Jesus Christ, that would carry the Gospel into places nobody else would. I saw you standing in front of kings and presidents talking about the things of God. I saw you on something I couldn't tell. It looked to be something like a president's counsel and you were helping kids get off drugs. You were doing things that were getting kids free and I saw Covenant coming out of poverty and getting an education because you talked to them. It's like you had a word in you that said, you know, "don't give up, don't get up, don't stop." And I just saw favor on your life to say those kind of things in places where preachers might not ever go. I couldn't tell if you were called to ministry or business. I think you were called to the business of ministry. It's like both. Both. Both. I remember Deion Sanders. He was a Dallas Cowboy. Jerry Jones asked him one day, "you want to play offense or defense?" He said, "both". That's what I saw in you. Both. You're going to be offense and defense for the Kingdom of God. God has some high expectations and you don't have to worry about it. When a gift and a calling's on a man, it's his greatest passion to walk it out. You just stay close to Jesus and He'll open the doors for you. Alright? God bless.

Norah

Okay, Miss Norah, I have a word for you. Do you mind standing up and I'm asking to do one more thing. Actually, I want you to stand on that chair. I'll help you get up if you want. Yeah. Fantastic. Just hang right there. Please don't fall. That's the way you get not invited back is to have the senior pastor's kid fall off a chair. So don't do that. Okay, So in Hebrew, I'm sure you know this—in Hebrew, your name means light. You knew that? Yeah, I thought you did. And it's an awesome name. It's a beautiful name, but it marks you. It marks you for your generation. You're called to be light to your generation. And revival is about to hit our land. And so the generation—most people believe, the generation just above you, that's where this revival is going to hit. It's going to hit the next generation. And you know, these early teenagers are going to walk through it. I actually believe that you're called to lead them. You don't have to carry this as burden. You don't have to carry this as something have to perform to. Your name means light. God put that name on your parents so that it would mark you for your generation. They're going to look to you for light. You're going to influence your friends. They're going to look to you for leadership. Again, you don't have to carry any of this. It's going to come very natural to you.

So you don't—don't worry about this word. It is a big word. I feel like this is a 20 to 30 year word for you. Your parents will help you walk this out. Don't be afraid. Be bold. And the other thing is you have a really, really cool personality. You're very even keel. You're very—you're right here and you don't have to be here and you don't have to be here to accomplish this goal. Be who you are. And you're going to lead. You're going to call, you're going to preach, you're going to do all of these different things and you're going to do all over the place. So, sister, that's why you're standing on this chair, because we all want to say “we see you.” You're called. Go get it.

YG

Okay, YG. I just heard the Lord say, you have a ministry of miracles inside of you. You will lay hands on people and see them recover. There's a guy where we're from and his name is Todd White. I don't know if you're familiar with him, but kind of looks like John the Baptist would look coming out of the wilderness and he's got dreads. He's just wild and crazy-looking. But he has this powerful ministry of miracles and healings. Now, I'm not saying you have to get dreadlocks or anything like that, or you got to go in the woods and eat some bugs. You don't have to do that, but you do have to wait on the Lord. You have to believe what God is saying about you and just trust that God will do it and how this is going to look—you're going to be somewhere and the Lord's is going to stir your heart to pray for healing for someone and the Lord wants you to step out in faith and do it. Now, Todd White had to lay hands on probably—I can't remember—it's like a hundred people before he saw the first miracle, but he knew what God said to him and he continued to walk and faith until he saw the fruit of God was telling him. This is big, but you don't have to worry. Don't get stressful and think, “How am I going to make this happen?” You don't have to. Our job is just to believe the Lord. So just submit this word to people that are leaders over you. Let them pray into it with you. See how God is leading you in there and just trust the Lord with it. Amen? Amen.

Leslie

I feel so emotional when I look at you. The Lord gave me Jeremiah 33:3 for you. I feel like you could probably quote it. It says, "Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and searchable things that you do not know." Leslie, I feel like He doesn't say that because He wants to play hide and seek with you. That's not who He is. He just wants to remind you of His promise where it says, "I will answer you." God bless you.

Deacon

Your spirit is in tune with the Holy Spirit. Not always, but increasingly, as you lean into loving Jesus with all your heart, I can see you beginning to move in obedience. I can hear your voice growing in strength. Your voice is listenable. There's a sound you make that makes Jesus attractive. I see favor with your friends and classmates growing in tangible ways. A leadership gift has been given. I encourage you to spend time in God's book. Start with John's gospel and the Lord will show you amazing things. Stay teachable. Ask for a listening ear and a hearing heart and Jesus will hear and help you learn to hear His voice. You're going to be a spokesman for Him.

Dale

When you walked in the first time that I saw you on this particular trip, I immediately saw something new about you that I've never seen before. Here's what it was. You are a William Wallace in the Kingdom of God. You are a Braveheart. You're loyal to a fault. You're fearless when it comes to standing for truth and integrity. Once in a lifetime, someone comes along whose life makes a notice. A notable difference. You are one of those men. Never say that your life doesn't matter. The truth is that you will leave a legacy of faithful families in your wake. Well done.

Courtney

The Lord pointed you out to me during worship, and I just sense that you're in a decision making space or it's not like a left or a right, but you're on a 'yes.' The Lord says, "yes." You've waited upon the Lord. He's renewed your strength. The time is now. Amen. That's it. Go get it. Amen.

Jeff

I just heard the Lord say that He's gone into your future to prepare a way, and He has covered you from your past. Any time—you've allowed the Lord to have a work in your heart. And now when you get in the presence of the Lord, you were undone. You were undone in His presence. You only desire to serve the Lord and you just want to give all that you have to Him. God wants you to know your decision for Him is unlocking the hearts of your family, and they will come to Jesus. They will come to Jesus. Amen.

Chris

I wrote one step forward, two steps back, two steps forward, three steps back. If you do the math on that, I don't know that you'd ever get anywhere, but this is what I heard for you, Chris. Only forward steps from now on. Stop looking back. Regret is a wasted emotion. Stop dwelling on the regret. It might be part of your story, but it's not who you are. Don't shrink back under pressure. Stand tall and press on. Amen? God bless you.

Annie

I saw a storm cloud in your mind. And then I heard the Lord say, “peace be still” and the storm abated and your mind was at ease. Isaiah 26:3 is a timely word of direction for you. You will keep him or her in perfect peace whose mind has stayed on you because he or she trusts in you. And that's your answer, “trust.” At the end of the day, being a disciple of Jesus is our choosing to fix our trust on Him, whenever storms come as well as when are at peace. It's easy to love Jesus a bit, but it's a bit more difficult to trust Him, even though He is altogether trustworthy. It's hard to see very far in a storm. But know this: the storm will pass and the turbulence in your mind will be calm and you'll know brighter days. And I hear a promise for you of 1 Corinthians 2:9, “what no eye has seen, what no ear has heard, what no human mind has conceived or imagined, the things God has prepared for those who love Him.” So keep your eyes fixed on Jesus. He will have the last word and it will be good.

Jordan

I'm going to ask everybody who is part of the worship ministry here at CityHope to stand up, whatever campus, it doesn't matter, all of you stand up for just a minute. I feel like we've got a tribe here. I want everybody to stand. Alright, I want to say something to you that needs to be said to every one of these that are standing with you. First of all, the song “With Christ”, were you one of the writers on that? When my son-in-law, Cody, wrote the song “Run to the Father”, I called him and I said to him, “good God, son, what level of heaven are you hanging out in?” And I want to say the same thing to you and your team. Scripture says, “When Jesus prayed, he said, ‘Pray like this. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.’” My exhortation to you and your team is this: “Worship your way into the high places of heaven. Hear the songs and sounds of heaven and bring them to earth.” Jordan, you're raising up a generation and releasing a culture of worship in this place. I saw people being set free and healed when the team leads. Keep doing what you're doing. My exhortation to you is just to do more of it. Time in prayer, time in worship, time in writing, time in listening. Songs from this house will go around the world. You will not just lead a worship team. You're called to steward a worship movement. Amen. Bless you.

Dameon

Buddy, you're good and I don't blow smoke about that. In the industry, they would say you have that 'it' factor. In the kingdom they would say you have the anointing and you have an anointing to play your bass. When you play bass, I think angels start dancing. When you play bass, I think people that need healing get healed. When you play bass, you're touching the back row as well as the front row. You've got an anointing to fill the spaces with worship and praise and you exude a joy through your playing and through your face that everybody needs. A baptism of joy is coming. And He's already given us examples like you. Amen.

Bryan

Matthew 13, Jesus gives a parable that is about the pearl of great price. These merchants are out looking for this thing. And when it's found, they sell everything for that. That's what the Lord did for you. You are that great price. You are that very high value field. You are all of that. Jesus was thinking about you on the cross. The depth of God's love for you is so deep. It's not more than anybody else, but you're being pointed out right now. You're a son. You are a son. You are no longer an orphan. You are no longer any of those things. He changed your trajectory. He changed your life and you know that. God's inviting you today to grab hold of discipleship the way Jacob grabbed hold of the Angel of God. Right? Grab hold of discipleship in this way. I see you coming through a chute like a time warp. Something like you're coming to this really, really fast season and don't rush it. It's not a microwave season. If God's going to move it fast, it's up to God. It's not up to you. So don't get crazy. But I see you coming to a season of discipleship and I see you surrounding yourself with men and women that need to hear your story, need to hear what's in your heart, need to hear what's in your mind, need to hear what's in your mouth. And I see you discipling thousands and thousands of people. You're a great man dude. You're a great man.

Mike

Mike, the Lord wants you to know He loves you. He loves you, He loves you. You don't have to do anything to earn that love and you don't have to do anything to keep it. He loves you. Do you guys go to church here? Is this your home church or are you visiting?. You belong here. You belong here. God has something for you here. And I think you've been hesitant to really step fully in because you don't feel like you deserve it and that's a lie of the enemy. Don't be hesitant anymore. Stay right there. I'm not going to do anything crazy. I just want to—turn towards me. Okay. We're just going to break this off. Break it off in the name of Jesus, we're not hesitant no more. Amen, we're just going to receive the love of God. You're worthy of His love. Amen? Amen. Thank you Lord.

Logan and Micala

I got this word for both of you during worship. I'm reminded of the Scripture Isaiah 55:11. My words that I speak will not come back empty handed. They'll do the work I sent them to do. They'll complete the mission I've assigned to them. The Lord doesn't make a promise to us and go back on it. He didn't forget about it. He hasn't forgotten the promises that He's given you. Keep holding on to them and hold your heads up. Quit looking down. Hold your heads up. He's going to be faithful to the promises that He's given you. Amen. God bless you guys.

Bella

Now I know Bella. There's also some things I didn't know about her that the Lord began to download in my room last night. Bella, you're becoming a courageous leader among your generation. Courage is never accidental, and good leaders don't just happen. It's a process from hearing a call to being equipped for the area of service that you're called to. You have been given a leadership gift which is just about being a servant. That's all it means. It's not because your parents or grandparents are leaders, it's because you are being called to serve the Lord and to lead. Be grateful for your spiritual heritage. Let that inspire you, but respond to Jesus' call your life as an individual between you and Him. In future times, you will sense the call to minister in other nations. When opportunities open a door for that, go through it. In the meantime, just be faithful in school. Stay obedient to your parents. They paid me to say that. Set your mind and heart to being a disciple of Jesus. The word disciple just means learner or follower. Ask the Holy Spirit to prepare you for effective service and He will. You're becoming a courageous leader with the call of God on your life. Don't be afraid. Just trust Jesus.
