

MOBILE SUNDAY 11AM - Words In Due Season

Phil

I just feel like, first of all, when I saw you, I was like, man and the Lord took a mess and gave you a message. He did. I feel like the Lord says to tell you that your story matters. You discount yourself because someone has gone through or experienced more than you have. So you're always like, "oh, it wasn't that bad. Oh, it's okay." But the Lord says, "your story matters" and when you tell others your story, it's going to bring freedom and healing to others. You matter. Your story matters. He's giving you the ability to see above, which in the natural, we can see that. But He's giving you the ability to see above circumstances and to help others see above their circumstances. Your height is a gift. I don't know if you ever thought of it that way. I wish I had a little bit of it, but you can keep it. God bless you. What I saw about you was generational. And it's a good thing. We're called to be people like Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. And Abraham was still alive while Jacob was still alive. He was making an impact on his son and his grandsons while he was still alive. That make sense? Alright, here's what I saw. I saw what I call front porch living, not back porch living. I'm talking about living life to its fullest in front of God and everybody. It's like they see the good, the bad, the ugly, they see the grace, the mercy. They see the love, the joy. They see it all and every bit of it is like a magnet toward Jesus. Front porch living is what I call it. I saw you laughing and singing. I saw the joy of the Lord on your family. Your lives are on display for all the world to see. The Scripture says by this the world will know that you're My disciples because of your love for one another. This is a—there's a God given magnetic magnetism I wrote down about you and your family. He made you to be people of influence, to influence not just each other, but to influence those outside your family. You see, it's one thing to be a father. It's another thing altogether different to be a daddy. There's a daddy anointing on you and it's more than your family needs because God has called you to mentor some young men. Okay? And as you mentor these young men, I saw 12. I know Jesus had 12, but I saw 12. And I don't see them necessarily in a group setting, but I just see you making an impact on these young men. And one day when you're in your eighties, there are going to be some successful businessmen out there because you took the time to pour some foundational truth in them. So all along the way, just keep living life and keep dumping truth and love on people, okay? And when you need to slow down and really focus on one, the Holy Spirit will tell you, Alright? But y'all don't take your living to the back porch. You keep living on the front porch. God bless you.

When I first saw you, I thought about just the illustration of your kids. Is this your boy? Is that your only one? Okay, awesome. So you know how our kids will just be like "Dad! Watch this! Watch this!" and you're like, "I've seen you do that 1400 times, but I'm gonna watch you one more time." This is what I wrote for you. You're being watched. Little eyes are watching to see how you do it. Lead well. But I also feel like I heard the Lord say to tell you that you're doing a great job as a dad. You're a really good dad. I don't know if you got the affirmation that maybe you were looking for when you were younger. I don't know, but you can definitely give what you didn't have. They're watching Dad. Lead well. Good job. Bless you.

April

Pastor Wayne just talked about how prophecy should either be encouraging, exhorting or comforting. Okay? And I really saw the comfort of the Holy Spirit coming on you today. Now, what I saw was a dark cloud around you, but when comfort came, comfort overcame the dark cloud. Now the dark cloud has nothing to do with you. It's around you. It's not in you. Does that make sense? It doesn't belong to you. Here's what I believe I heard from the Lord. The heaviness you feel is not you. It's around you. The burdens that you carry are not yours. They're not your own. I saw you're burdened for someone you love, and you felt powerless to do anything about it. But I heard the Lord say, "Give it to me. I've got this and I've got you." Okay? Now the Lord's doing something new with me, and it takes a little faith for me to step out there, but I have to. I have to be obedient to what I believe I heard. Okay. Do you know anybody named Scotty? That ring a bell? Okay, that's alright. Let's just lay it before the Lord. And if you come in contact with somebody named Scotty who's super, super burdened. I'd like to know next year or whenever would you? But just be praying for somebody named Scotty, because I really believe the burden on him is going to try to come on you and you're going to be able to say, "No, it's not coming on me," but you're also going to be able to pray for him and see it come off of him. Okay? Alright, God bless you.

Melissa

This is what I wrote for you. Melissa, "keep it simple and go where the peace is." You'll be surprised how a difficult situation can be remedied by following the path of peace. There's a Scripture that says, "You will keep me in perfect peace when my eyes are fixed on You. It can really be a whole lot more simple than you've made it out to be." And God wants to take the burden off of you for that. God bless you and these sweet girls.

I want to tell you a little bit—a little story here. Before the disciples were called followers of Jesus, they were called followers of The Way. It's found in the book of Acts. The disciples even asked Jesus, “how can we know the way?” Jesus said “I am The Way, The Truth, and The Life.” Here's what I saw. God said, I've given this girl simple faith. Don't make it complicated. He's going to lead you in The Way. Here's what I heard you say. I heard you say, “I just don't know The Way. I don't know The Way. I don't know The Way,” The Lord said, “You don't have to know The Way. All you got to know is Me. You just need to know Me.” Now, do you remember when you gave your heart to the Lord? How old were you? Okay. He's brought you all this way. He's not going to leave you now. Okay? All the questions that you're asking, you don't even need the answers. All you need to know is He's got you and He's given you peace. And if you start to make a decision you don't have peace about, don't make it. Say, “no, I'm going to back away from that one right now till I get peace.” So the Lord says to you today “I put My peace on you. I am The Way, The Truth and The Life. I'm going to lead you. You don't have to worry.” Okay? Alright. God bless you.
